Abstract—We examine changes in the environment of wireless communications research over the last two decades by comparing a paper written in 1991 [1] with a recent 2011 paper [?] and reflect on some interesting current research topics.

I. INTRODUCTION

This demo file is intended to serve as a “starter file” for IEEE conference papers produced under L^AT_EX using IEEEtran.cls version 1.7 and later. I wish you the best of success.
